Authors & Artists

Objectives:
- Recognize origins of specific stories and character types.
- Analyze texts for story origin and character type, comparing texts to the originals.
- Analyze the structure of a poem.
- Compare the effects of structure on multiple poems.
- Use punctuation (commas, ellipses, and/or dashes) to indicate a pause or break.

I Can Statements:
- I can recognize Biblical and mythological stories and character types within modern literature.
- I can explain the way in which original Biblical and mythological stories are represented within modern texts.
- I can explain the way the structure of a poem affects its meaning.
- I can compare the effect structure has on multiple poems.
- I can use commas to indicate a pause or break in my writing.
- I can use ellipses to indicate a pause or break in my writing.
- I can use dashes to indicate a pause or break in my writing.

1. Character's You'll Meet Again & Again
2. Stories You'll Read Again & Again
3. Poem Structure
4. Ellipsis, Commas, & Dashes

CCSS:
RL.8.5, RL.8.9, & L.8.2a