

Making Predictions

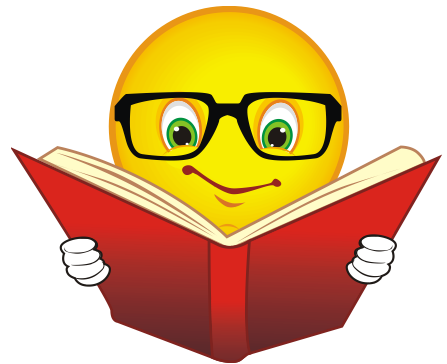

Objectives:

- Ask questions about key details in a text.
- Answer questions about key details in a text.
- Predict what might happen next in a text.

Procedure:

- While reading stories, encourage students to make predictions and ask questions.
- In order to keep students engaged and accountable, ask students to record their predictions and questions on sticky notes, on white boards, or in a notebook.
- Revisit predictions after completing the reading & discuss.

I noticed...
I see...
I like...
I wonder...
I predict...
